

Apr 9, 1865

General Lee surrendered at Appomattox, ending the Civil War.

Apr. 9, 1865

1912 Dates J-BK

Mobile Bay

After Johnston's surrender to Sherman, hostilities in the South continued for some time.

In Mar 1865, CANBY led an expedition against Mobile. By the 9th of Apr, the two forts which protected it had been forced to surrender and on the 11th, the city was evacuated.

Apr 9, 1865

1912 Dates J-BK

Battle: Appomattox

Union

Grant

w 100,000

lost 500

defeated

Lee

w 27,000

lost 26,000

Lee surrendered.

Slavery was abolished forever. The Union was preserved. Nearly 1,000,000 men killed
Cost nearly 8,000,000

Apr 9, 1865

The news of Lee's surrender was received in Washington at 9 PM Sun evening, Apr 9, and at a somewhat later hour in other cities